Writing Sample

Write a thorough essay in which you explain a significant experience in your life, showing its importance to you. This might be a move, the arrival of a sibling, an important decision, a trip, a performance, or anything else that was meaningful to you. Use this as an opportunity to tell about yourself and your values.

When you are ready to copy your final draft, use ink, and write on this form. You may attach extra pages if you need more space.

When you are finished, sign the bottom of this form to verify that the composition is your own work.
